4) made the recruitment fee in the amount specified in the Rector's order;

5) submitted a complete application for the selected field/level/form of studies conducted in Polish studies through IRK or in English through ORS.

2. The University recognizes the results of University Entrance Examinations conducted at other universities on exam papers for the matriculation examination prepared by the CKE and assessed according to the rules established by the CKE in subjects that are the basis for qualification for the selected field of study. The UEW score is only valid for the year of recruitment.

2a) The University organizes the WUM Entrance Examination in the following subjects: Mathematics, Biology, Chemistry, Polish language, English language. The scope of material covered by the WUM Entrance Examination is identical to the scope of material (core curriculum) required to take the 2023 matura secondary school leaving examination at the advanced level on the Central Examination Board's test sheets (information on the core curriculum is available at: <https://cke.gov.pl/egzamin-maturalny/egzamin-maturalny-w-formule-2023/>). The WUM Entrance Examination is conducted electronically (online) using electronic means of communication in accordance with the rules set out in the instructions, which the candidate will receive by email to the address provided in the application submitted to the IRK. The date of the WUM Entrance Examination will be specified in the schedule referred to in § 3 paragraph 2. The subjects constituting the criteria for admission to a given field of study, form, and level of studies conducted in Polish, covered by the WUM Entrance Examination, are specified in Appendixes 2–17.

2b) In case of foreign candidates applying for admission to first-cycle studies or long-cycle Master's studies on the basis of a document issued abroad which is not a document referred to in paragraph 1 point 1 letter d), e), f) or g), foreign candidates are required to take and pass (obtaining a minimum of 30% in each subject) the WUM Entrance Examination in the subjects constituting the criteria for admission to a given field of study, form, and level of studies conducted in Polish. Candidates referred to in the first sentence, instead of taking the WUM Entrance Examination in all subjects constituting the criteria for admission to a given field of study, form and level of studies conducted in Polish, may take and present the results of the University Entrance Exam in subjects constituting the criteria for admission to a given field of study, form and level of studies conducted in Polish, such as: Biology, Chemistry, Mathematics. The results obtained in the UEW or the WUM Entrance Examination constitute 100% of the basis for qualification in the recruitment process in the subjects in which they were obtained.

3. In case of candidates who have passed the IB or EB examination or receive a certificate/diploma/other document issued outside the Republic of Poland - entitling them to apply for admission to higher education in the Republic of Poland in the year of recruitment and are waiting for the certificate to be issued, persons who have a certificate of the results of the matriculation examination or grades on a certificate/diploma/other document issued outside the Republic of Poland - entitling to apply for admission to higher education in the Republic of Poland, issued by authorized bodies:

a) on the date of closing the system before the announcement of the first list of qualified candidates in case of recruitment for a field of study conducted in Polish or

b) within the deadline set by the WKR for submitting documents in case of recruitment for a major conducted in English.

The qualification of these candidates will be conditional until the presentation of the original IB or EB diploma or certificate/diploma/other document issued outside the Republic of Poland - entitling them to apply for admission to higher education in the Republic of Poland.

4. Foreigners who undertake studies in Polish on the basis of a decision of the competent Minister shall not join the recruitment procedure.

1. Detailed rules of qualification for fields of study taught in Polish are set out in Appendices 2 - 17.

2. Detailed rules of qualification for fields of study taught in English are set out in Appendices 18 - 19.

3. The rules for admission to studies of winners and finalists of central level contests and the list of recognized contests are set out in Appendix 21.

1. Instructions for submitting applications in IRK/ORS are available on the University's website.

2. A candidate is responsible for the authenticity and correctness of the data entered by the candidate into the IRK/ORS application.

3. Candidates are required to independently check the current information and their position on the ranking list in the IRK/ORS application until the end of recruitment. Candidates are responsible for the consequences of failure to comply with this obligation, as well as for the consequences of making their login and password available to third parties.

1. There is a separate recruitment fee for each field of study, level and form of study in the amount specified in the Rector's order.

2. The recruitment fee is non-refundable, subject to section 3.
3. The fee is refunded if the field of study is not launched due to a small number of candidates. The refund of the fee and the refund of the overpayment is made by the Financial Department, at the request of UKR, to the bank account indicated by the candidate.

1. A candidate may enroll in more than one field of study, provided that a separate recruitment fee is paid for each field/level/form and separate applications are submitted for selected fields of study, subject to section 2 and 3.
2. It is not possible to apply simultaneously for full-time studies in the following fields of study: medicine, medicine and dentistry, pharmacy, medical analytics, physiotherapy. It is not possible to apply simultaneously for full-time studies for more than one field of study conducted in English.
3. The following persons may not apply for a given field of study/level/form of study:
 - 1) currently studying in this field/level/form offered in a given language,
 - 2) persons who have a graduate diploma of this field/level/form of studies conducted in a given language.
4. A candidate may only be admitted to one field of study conducted in Polish or English beginning in a given academic year. In the case of a candidate who has been qualified for admission to several programs or to the same program taught in Polish and English, submitting documents for one selected program taught in the chosen language (Polish or English) prevents the simultaneous submission of documents for another program. The choice made may be changed after resigning from the originally selected program.

Ranking lists

1. Once the application is closed in IRK/ORS, the candidate cannot edit it. The candidate can only- independently, and if this function is not available in the system - via WKR- delete the application, resigning from admission to studies.
2. Persons who:
 - a. obtained zero qualification points in the subject which is the basis for qualification, or
 - b. did not complete or correctly complete the application or
 - c. did not pay the recruitment fee in accordance with the applicable deadlines.are not subject to qualification
3. The persons referred to in par. 2 form a list of persons not admitted to the qualification procedure.

1. For each field/level/form and language in which studies are conducted, separate ranking lists are created, on which persons admitted to the selection procedure are entered.
2. Candidates are ranked on the ranking list based on the results obtained in the in the qualification procedure in descending order of the number of points obtained, taking into account the detailed rules set out in the Appendices No. 2 - 19.
3. Candidates admitted on the basis of a diploma of a laureate/finalist of a nationwide Contest are ranked at the top of the ranking list in alphabetical order.
4. A cut-off threshold is determined on the ranking list, taking into account the limit of places for a given field of study and the principle that:
 - 1) the candidate's minimum number of points may not be lower than 66% of the maximum possible number of points,
 - 2) the cut-off threshold may not divide the group of candidates who have obtained the same number of ranking points into parts.
5. The cut-off threshold may be lowered if the admission limit is not met.
6. The decision on lowering the cut-off threshold is made by the Chairperson of the WKR.
7. Candidates above the cut-off threshold are eligible for admission to studies.
8. Candidates below the cut-off make up a waiting list.

9. After lowering the cut-off threshold, candidates from the waiting list are qualified for admission to studies in the ranking order.
10. If, as a result of the main recruitment procedure, the limit of places for a given field/level/form of studies conducted in Polish or English has not been filled, and there are no more Candidates on the waiting list, or when a decision has been made to end this procedure, the Chairperson of the WKR may launch supplementary recruitment by setting and announcing the dates of supplementary recruitment.
11. In case of an insufficient number of candidates eligible for admission to a given field of study/level/form of studies conducted in Polish or English, the decision on starting these studies is made by the head of the recruiting unit.
12. A protocol is drawn up from the course of the qualification procedure. The protocol is signed by all members of the WKR. All deletions and changes made in the protocol should be initialed by the Chairperson of the WKR.

1. Candidates with disabilities are subject to the same recruitment process as all candidates for studies at the Medical University of Warsaw.
2. If the detailed conditions and recruitment procedure provide for an entrance examination, the candidate may apply for the examination to be adjusted to the needs resulting from his/her disability.
3. The manner and possibility of adapting the examination is determined on an individual basis, on the basis of a detailed conversation between the Chairperson or the secretary of the WKR with the candidate and the current documentation provided by him/her confirming the specificity of the disability.

Resignation from applying for studies

1. At each stage, the candidate has the right to resign from the recruitment for the selected field of study.
2. The candidate submits his/her resignation from studies in the WKR and marks this fact in the IRK application.
3. The submission of documents by the candidate for the selected field of study is not tantamount to the candidate's resignation from applying for the other fields for which he/she applied. In order to resign, it is necessary to take the actions specified in par. 2.
4. A candidate who resigned from the selected field of study after submitting the documents should collect the documents from the WKR or the Dean's Office; uncollected documents will be transferred to the archives, and after the expiry of their storage period - destroyed.

Admission to studies and required documents

1. After the completion of the admission procedure, the WKR makes decisions on qualifying candidates for admission to studies.
2. The WKR informs about the completion of the recruitment procedure (by sending appropriate messages to recruitment accounts):
